EDUCATOR

Visiting Assistant Professor of Musical Theatre Voice, Western Carolina University

(Aug 2024-May 2025)

Applied Voice- THEA 106, 206, 306, 406

Teaches weekly private lessons to over 20 B.F.A. Musical Theatre majors. Coordinates and teaches a weekly studio class with all students. Upholds and reinforces the Core Values of the Musical Theatre program: Authentic Curiosity, Daring Experimentation, Joyful Contribution, and Radical Critical Thought.

Musicianship II- THEA 149

Teaches music theory for all freshman B.F.A. Musical Theatre majors ranging from basic theory principles to advanced sight singing and score analysis. Collaborates with the university tutoring center to coach upperclassmen musical theatre students on tutoring techniques for the course.

Theatre Teacher, Duluth High School

(Aug 2023-July 2024)

Advanced Drama

A multi-level vocational theatre class with over 60 students. We put up three productions throughout the school year (Godspell, A Christmas Carol, and Matilda). Uplifted student leadership by guiding student directors and choreographers throughout the expectations of a production process. Music directed Matilda for a cast of over 50 students. Collaborated with co-theatre director Brandy Carter to bring our productions to compete at the One Act Festival, ThesCon, and the Shuler Awards.

Theatre Fundamentals

Led a class of over 30 9th graders in what was for almost all of them their first exposure to theatre. Re-wrote the state-provided theatre history curriculum to de-center western standards and provide more diverse examples of global theatre. Designed "Production Handbooks" for every role on a production (ranging from actor, director, lighting designer, make-up designer, stage management, etc.) and found a role for every student on their spring play (that they selected), an adaptation of Dracula.

Theatre Marketing

This course included both marketing for the school's productions as well as marketing as a whole and marketing themselves post-graduation. The class consisted of six seniors, and by the end of the course they had not only created materials and social media content for the school's shows, but also built a mock marketing pitch for a fictional professional theatre company, and revamped the theatre program's website. They also created the "Duluth Drama Dispatch", a biweekly newsletter sent out to parents of theatre students.

Private Voice Teacher, Self-employed

(Jan 2022-Present)

Maintains a private voice studio. Depending on interest, students focus on classical, musical theatre, and contemporary commercial styles (preferably all of the above to build their versatility!). Prepares vocal exercises for each lesson and selects repertoire that meets students' technical and performance goals. Keeps up-to-date with voice science research and is a member of NATS (National Association of Teachers of Singing).

Voice for Non-Majors Instructor, Syracuse University

(Jan 2023-May 2023)

Designed course syllabus to introduce non-music majors to voice production and music literacy. Course is based on using Alexander Technique to build healthy alignment habits for new singers. The course provided non-music majors with both technical knowledge and performance opportunities.

Musical Theatre Faculty, Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp

(Aug 2022, Jul-Aug 2023)

Taught Musical Theatre Voice and Dance to forty campers aged 10-14. Directed and choreographed a cabaret-style showcase for twenty campers ensuring equal performance opportunity. Instructed a group of theatre minors in dance styles including jazz, tap, and ballet.
